Have you ever smiled back at someone who smiled at you? Kindness works in a similar way. When someone helps you, you feel good, and you want to help someone else. For example, after a stranger held the door for Minji, she let an old man go ahead of her in line. Later, that man picked up a pen that a student dropped and gave it back. One small act of kindness traveled from person to person. In this way, kindness _____.

☐ spreads from one person to another ☐ makes people tired

☐ is only for strangers ☐ starts with a pen

3 다섯 단계로 빈칸을 푸세요. 보기에서 고르고, 근거 문장과 고르지 않은 보기 하나의 까닭을 쓰세요.

Most of us try to avoid boredom. We pick up our phones whenever we have nothing to do. However, boredom can actually be _____. When you are bored, your mind starts to wander, and you begin to imagine new things. Many writers and artists say that some of their best ideas came while they were doing nothing special, such as waiting for a bus or taking a shower. So the next time you feel bored, don't reach for your phone right away. Give your mind a chance to play.

☐ good for creative thinking ☐ a waste of time ☐ bad for your phone

☐ a reason to take a shower
